Diaz wins constable primary runoff election

Diaz, who last ran for the position of Harris County Precinct 2 Constable Chris Diaz (right) easily defeated challenger George Goffney, is in the Democratic primary on Tuesday, May 24. Diaz will face Republican Dan Boykins in the runoff election on June 28.

The race for the position of Harris County Precinct 2 Constable is a key election for voters in Precinct 2, which includes most of southwest Harris County, including southeast Houston, Katy, and Spring Branch. The Precinct 2 Constable is responsible for law enforcement in the area, including traffic enforcement, domestic violence investigations, and more.

In the race for the Democratic nomination, Diaz received 57 percent of the vote (16,049 votes) to Goffney's 43 percent (12,240 votes).

In the Republican contest for courthouse, Gary Gatto easily defeated Wayne Chanin. Gatto received 96 percent of the vote (11,825 votes) to Chanin's 4 percent (587 votes).

The May 24 runoff primary election results have been tallied, with few surprises. The results show a clear victory for Diaz in the Democratic primary, while Gatto easily wins the Republican primary.

In the Democratic primary, George Goffney received 73 percent of the vote (3,231 total votes) to Goffney's 27 percent (659 votes). Diaz won the Precinct 2 race with 71 percent of the vote (2,870 votes) to Goffney's 29 percent (1,213 votes).

The candidate who wins the Democratic primary on Tuesday, May 24, will face the Republican candidate in the runoff election on June 28. The winner of the runoff will go on to face the Republican incumbent, Grady Yarbrough, in the general election on Nov. 8.

The Wests are pictured at the biannual gala hosted by San Jacinto College Wives. The Wests have supported the 2016 Lifetime Legends award presented by San Jacinto College Wives.

Goffney, a former Houston police officer, is running on a law and order platform, while Diaz is a former state representative and has experience in public service. Goffney and Diaz have both criticized each other's record of enforcement and have focused on issues such as traffic safety and voter fraud.

The runoff election will take place on June 28, and the winner will face the Republican incumbent, Grady Yarbrough, in the general election on Nov. 8.
Are South Belt voters being cut out?

Those of you who know me well know I do not vote along party lines, but rather for the worth of the candidate. My voting record has been 100% non-partisan.

In March, during the primary election, I actually cast my vote for a Democrat in the Democratic primary at Beverly Hills Intermediate. I felt so ashamed.

As I told friends, I almost never go to polling places in south Houston. I drive down Hill near Shaw Road, out of the way of two polling places, and then the county quit making that location available to me. I had found my new voting destination for South Belts.

But the primary didn’t become even more interesting until Wednesday, which is not only my birthday, but May 4, the birthday of the late President John F. Kennedy.

We found that since the March primary of 14 of 15 South Belt residents’ locations had been changed. On the Democratic side, 13 of 15 were changed. Two were changed after weighting was done in the paper. Officials had the right to change election places up to 15 hours before the election opened at 7 a.m.

I visited the south of Grand Boulevard went to visit the previously announced location of the Parker Williams Library and found they needed to vote at Laura Bush Educational, north of Gulfton.

When my husband went to vote in the last election, he could walk across the street, as there is an activity as the school had an activity going on when he arrived. The school was active in voting.

Summer camp at UHCL introduces kids to nature

University of Houston-Clear Lake's(ULC) branch of USY, is about to launch its annual Jewish youth convention in Houston. The convention, which will be held on May 28th at the University of Houston-Clear Lake, is expected to attract a large number of participants from various communities across the United States. The convention will feature a variety of activities, including workshops, seminars, and social events, designed to engage and educate young people on Jewish culture, history, and values.

The convention aims to provide a platform for Jewish youth to connect with one another, share their experiences, and learn from each other. It will also serve as a means to foster a sense of community and belonging among young Jews, encouraging them to continue their Jewish journey and be active participants in the Jewish community.

The convention is open to all young Jews, regardless of their background or level of involvement in Jewish life. It is a great opportunity for anyone interested in Jewish culture and values to come together and learn from one another.

For more information, please visit the convention website or contact the UHCL USY chapter.

District Clerk Daniel opens passport offices in suburbs

The Harris County District Clerk’s Office has expanded its quick, efficient passport service to four suburbs: the Katy area, Clear Lake, Humble, and Spring. District Clerk Daniel announced the office’s new initiatives recently.

The satellite offices are pilot programs, and service at the suburban sites will be expanded as the clientele using the offices increases. "Suburbanites are tired of facing long lines to get passports," Daniel said. "I believe that government needs to be more self-sufficient. It’s time for us to have oversight of the expansion of the District Clerk’s downtown passport operation into the suburbs."

Here is the schedule for the satellite offices:

- Katy area: Open the second Wednesday of the month from 1 to 7 p.m. at 1503 South Houston in Humble.
- Clear Lake: Open the second Wednesday of the month from 1 to 7 p.m. at the Clear Lake City County Prov- ince Library, 18011 Doran Lane in Houston.
- Spring: Open the second Saturday of the month from 1 to 7 p.m. at the Katy area.
- Spring: Open the third Saturday of the month from 1 to 7 p.m. at the Katy area.

Daniel thanked the Harris County Public Library system and its director, Edward Presswood, for providing space for the district clerk’s satellite services. "The Harris County Public Library system is an important community partner. It’s efficient and convenient, he said.

In June of 1966, a young Pastor John Morgan and 15 others from First Baptist Church of Pasadena set out to start a new church in the brand new Sagemoor community. Fifty years later, Pastor Morgan and over 20,000 members continue to minister to this community, ours and the city, and our world.

Sagemoor Church is grateful for the opportunity to serve you, our community, for these past 50 years. We have lived through growth, change, triumph and tragedy together. Through it all, our prayer is that you have discovered our great, unchanging God and experienced His amazing love for you.
JFCH champion Pisz Camp, again

Dobie is once again the proud owner of the Pazi Hall Cup, as its boys’ soccer team earned the title. The Cardinals, under the direction of new head coach Otto Schmid, won the Region IV-5Arendered championship, defeating crosstown rival Alvin 2-0 in the Region IV semifinals and then defeating San Jacinto 2-1 in the championship game.

The team’s championship run was highlighted by an impressive 2-0 victory over miserly San Jacinto in the Region IV semifinal game. Dobie had a strong first half and held San Jac into a scoreless tie at halftime. San Jacinto, seeded fourth in the tournament, had come to the game with serious personnel issues, as top pitcher Hudson Treu, who had pitched the first game of the tournament, was out due to an injury.

With the win, Dobie advanced to the Region IV championship game, where they would face Alvin. Alvin, which had advanced to the Region IV championship game last year, had a strong recent history against Dobie, having won three of the last four Region IV championship games.

This year, Alvin proved to be much more of a challenge for Dobie, as Dobie had to Thread the needle, with a strong Alvin squad. Dobie, however, proved to be much better in the championship game, and when San Jacinto tried to mount a comeback, Dobie was able to hold them off, much to the delight of the Dober fans who had made the trip to the regional tournament.

The key to San Jac’s success was its pitching, with Hudson Treu and Alvin’s strong arm giving Dobie fits. Dobie, on the other hand, had a strong pitching staff, with Dobie’s three starters, including Dobie’s star player, Jake White, pitching a combined no-hitter. Dobie, however, was able to push runs across, with Dobie’s three starters, including Dobie’s star player, Jake White, pitching a combined no-hitter. Dobie, however, was able to push runs across, and ultimately won the championship, 2-0.

With the win, Dobie now advances to the State tournament, where they will face the winner of the other Region IV championship game between Alvin and Deer Park. Dobie, however, is looking forward to the State tournament, and is hoping to bring home the state championship to Dobie.

"It was a great win, and we’re all excited to advance to the State tournament,” said Dobie head coach Otto Schmid. “We’ve worked hard all year, and we’re looking forward to the challenge of the State tournament.”

Dobie, however, is not taking anything for granted, and is looking forward to a strong state tournament run.

Basyoni’s overall performance included hitting .437 with 14 home runs for 88 RBIs during the 2016-2017 school year. The 6-foot-2, 160-pounder was a four-year varsity player and was named District MVP and to the All-District 11-6A first team. Her 134 batting average was second in the district.

Basyoni was one of 12 Dobie players named all-district this year. Four juniors and two seniors were named first teamers, three sophomores were named second teamers and three freshmen were named third teamers. One of those freshmen, senior Lara Vasquez (.438), Zack Paredes (.426), Ivan Rapallo (.441) and Adriel Martinez (.390) were also named all-district.

LoBue and epoxy players included shortstop piece of the team's championship game, which delivered 74 strike- outs in 7-9 innings and was named Tournament MVP.

Others look to replace essentially any other players, but there will be plenty of help on the varsity squad, including those-three start- ers Taves Marquez and Kevin Patres.

Part of the team’s goal was to lay down the stretch, in particular players who have had the jump to the varsity squad, including the team’s hardest hitter, Isaiah Vasquez.

The offense was led by Ivan Diaz (.388), Mateo Gutierrez (.380), Denis Lopez (.366),0251.

Dobie’s student-athletes were named the PISD Cup’s 2016-2017 Offensive MVP in baseball, cross-country and track and field.

San Jacinto College baseball to make another World Series championship bid three batters to earn the save.

The key contributors on offense were sophomore catcher/outfielder Ryan January, sophomore infielder Caden Williams and sophomore catcher Baine Schoenroegel.

January led off the ninth inning with a double and Williams drilled an RBI single that brought home January for the game-winning run that turned the momentum of the game. Schoenroegel followed Williams, and smashed an RBI triple to the center field wall.

Shortly thereafter, he raced home on a passed ball for the fourth and final run.

After the game, Schoenroegel was named Player of the Tournament by virtue of his win in Game 1 and his dominant pitching performance in Game 4.

San Jac Head Coach Tom Arrington was also named Region XIV Coach of the Year for the 11th time.

Arrington had nothing but praise for the team. "The game, I told the players, how proud everyone is of how well they performed and how great they are to have around," he continued. "It’s a great accomplishment to win the regional tournament. Winning the South Zone title was step one. Winning the regional tournament was step two, and a very big step. "Now the final step is to win the World Series. These young men represent San Jacinto College so well."

San Jacinto College headed back to the National Junior College Athletic Association’s Division I JUCO World Series after emerging as the undefeated champions of the Region XIV tournament. Seeded first in its zone, SJC scored a pair of easy wins and then defeated Wharton Country Junior College in a pair of tight games to win the title. Now, San Jac is going to the series for a record 25th time, in search of its first national title since the 1990 season.
